CURRENT POSITION:

VP PROMOTION
MONUMENT RECORDS

Luke. Nice leap. Did you have a former gig where you climbed ladders?

I am actually terrified of ladders. The hell I caught from my wife and neighbors when my then 60-year-old mother was on a ladder painting the second story of our first house is something I will never forget. For the record, she loves to paint.

Let's play fast pitch ball: You have Caitlyn Smith climbing quickly and showing real signs of traction. Consider this: The track goes to number one at Country and is driving streams. Do you cross "I Can't" to other formats?

I think anytime you have an audience with a passion for a particular piece of music, you make sure you maximize exposure and if that means crossing the "format boundaries" you do it. I cannot think of any reason why it would be a bad thing to expose music to a broader audience. I do think it is important to have the proper analytics and a set of metrics in place to help make that decision. If the data points to a desired appetite from an audience outside of the country format, you go chase it.

You have to paddle a canoe from New Orleans to St Paul along the Mississippi River. Your boat-mates are a PD, an artist (other than Country) an Ex-President (living or not so much) and a movie star. Who is on your rowing team and why did you pick them?

I'll start with the obvious, Mike Kennedy (WDAF/PD)...He got me into this business almost 30 years ago and has been by my side the entire time, and for a guy his age, he's still pretty fit. For an artist I gotta say John Legend, he's just a cool dude who would not only be a good paddler, but he would bring some laughs, so that would be a win. In these polarizing times, I will choose our 8th President Martin Van Buren as he seems like someone I can include without pissing off half of the readers. I have never had a conversation with anyone who said they hate Martin Van Buren, so this has to be a somewhat safe answer. Movie star would be Reese Witherspoon. She has always been my movie star crush and I have actually had dreams that involved Reese, myself and a canoe...so, I gotta make sure she's on the boat, plus we need a woman on board, or we will all be screwed.

It's a new world out there and the rules change quickly. How do you see the relationships between labels and radio decision makers evolving

First and foremost, it still is and will always be about trust. But as things change, I think it is also going to be important to make sure we listen to each other and continue learning. Although most of us like to think we know everything, we don't. Things are not the way they've always been, and we have to acknowledge that. Once you acknowledge it, you can have appropriate dialogue that will hopefully allow us to continue to learn new things and find new ways to work together to accomplish our respective goals.

If you had to choose one artist (any format) to cover one song, who and what would we be hearing?

I imagine there will be those who say I'm crazy, but that's OK...you got to swing for the fence. I'd love to hear Steely Dan sing Harry Styles, Watermelon Sugar. I love Steely Dan, and I love that song. Turn on Watermelon Sugar, close your eyes and imagine Donald's vocals and keys, along with Walter Becker's (RIP) signature guitar on the intro, kicking into the amazing Steely Dan band with the horns and background vocalists...I hear it, and crazily enough, I hear a lot of Harry's songs fitting the vintage Steely Dan sound.

Did Bland leave anything weird in his desk?

Actually yes. He was kind enough to leave 2 very hot, active singles! The Walker Hayes track will make an impressive pre-impact debut on the Billboard chart this week. It's moving so fast and is already close to 10 million streams this week. Caitlyn Smith is on the cusp of her first ever top 40 single. "I Can't" is showing itself to be one of the biggest songs in Country music. I can think of nothing better to leave your successor. He did a fantastic job and left Monument teed up for a huge year.

Bonus question: All the way back to Little Luke days, what radio stations and/or air personalities influenced you the most?

Two stand out to me...Scott Donovan was the morning host on KHOK in Great Bend Kansas. As a young kid (6-10ish) I listened religiously and lived for Two Liter Tuesday where the 9th caller would win a two liter of Pepsi. I never won, but damn I tried hard. I still talk to Scott, and he is still hosting the morning show, a true living legend. KHOK was a great Top 40 station back in the 80's and early 90's. It switched to country in 1994.

As I got into my formative high school years, Randy Miller was the Morning Host on Top 40 at the time Q104 (KBEQ) in Kansas City. I remember vividly listening to his show waiting for my ride to pick me up for school, and upon their arrival sprinting out of the front door and racing to get in the car so I did not miss anything. He was brilliant. I was fortunate enough to start my career at KBEQ and he was the morning host. The first time I met him I was in a meeting with him and the promotion director, I remember trying not to freak out, I may as well have been sitting at the table with the Pope. When the announcement of my new position at Monument was announced Randy emailed me a congratulatory note and it brought back a ton of those memories of radio in the early to mid 90's and how much fun we had. I feel incredibly lucky to have been exposed to such great talents like Scott and Randy at such an early age, those two truly lit the flame that fueled my passion for radio and has shaped my life to this point.

Sources included Amazon, Apple, You Tube, Google Play, Napster, Pandora, and Slacker, combined to provide you a pinpoint look at the top streaming songs.

ASHLIE AMBER

"OPEN"

Ashlie Amber is Colorado cool. From her early days in the Rocky Mountain State she knew the road was calling. Ashlie is one of the emerging stars of Country's new open door to diversity and brings years of international touring to the table. CMT always shines a light of the new, the hip and the talented. Check out the desert cruise in a candy apple red vintage Mustang and turn those speakers up and "Open"...Click below:

BRAD PAISLEY - "CITY OF MUSIC"

Nashville knows how to party. There was eleven-teen zillion Country music fans packed in lower Broadway to celebrate America's birthday while Brad Paisley whipped out his amazing tribute to the "City of Music". CNN captured the concert live and MMI brings it back so you can squint and look for your cousins from Baton Rouge on the 382nd row. Click here:

CHRIS JANSON - "BEER ME"

Why is Chris Janson's acoustic EP important? We all know the dude is a monster performer. His live shows pack a series of punches, and you leave the venue sweaty and happy knowing you've witnessed one of the industry's very best. Chris hand-picked these tracks from his previous "Real Friends" release and performs them as real as you can get. It reminds us of the sheer power of a Country song while solidifying that it's not just the mega-octane performance that's great, but Janson is an amazing writer with a pure clear voice. Click here:

CASSADEE POPE - "WHAT THE STARS SEE" LIVE WITH KELLY CLARKSON

Those "The Voice" folks stick together. Cassadee's career came flying off the TV show and led to multiple awards, streams, singles and even a Grammy nomination. Uber-popular Voice-Judge Kelly Clarkson invited Pope onto her hit talk show to chat up her new album "Thrive" and perform her latest single "What The Stars See". If you want to see what Cassadee sees, click here:

CADILLAC THREE - "BRIDGES"

The Cadillac Three have been in the "awesome" category for some time. The odd scientific fact (according to The Mayo Clinic) is that they just... keep...getting... better! They are format defy-ers, rule breakers and serious musicians. They clearly aren't about chasing the current A-rotation radio sounds as they are about chasing millions of fans who love cutting-edge cool Country music. Get your skates on and roll with "Bridges". Click here:

KIDD G - "I HOPE"

Wut? Yo, U dunno Kidd G? Well, MMI sez get hip. This "Kidd" from Hamilton, Georgia blew it up on Tik Tok and Soundcloud all by his lonely self and proceeded to build a list of followers longer than a Country mile. And if you jump into his pool of music, you'll find out why. "I Wish" has all the trappings and rhymes of a teenage broken heart. MMI finds Kidd G a shining example of the "new modern Country biz model" and certainly represents the current diversification of the genres recently kicked-in doors.
