MMI WEEK AT A GLANCE

Sr. Chart/Data Analyst MMI Publications

SZA and Lady Gaga top the streaming charts to set up as the biggest movers of the week. "Kill Bill" from SZA jumps into the top 5 at #3 from 7th last week. It's the number one audio streamer and 9th in video streams. With a top 15 callout number, the song is finally starting to resonate with the pop audience. The panel is also believing with an airplay rank of 7th this week. Meanwhile, Lady Gaga's "Bloody Mary" surges back up to 14th from #18 overall and is the number one video streamer of the week. In addition, it's the number 10 seller in the whole group and ranked 13th in airplay, as the panel is definitely starting to pay attention.

The rest of the top 5, outside of SZA is very close to the same. Metro Boomin, with The Weekend and 21 Savage, and "Creepin" drops to 5th from #3 but is still 5th in audio streams and the number one callout. The audience still can't hear it enough. Meghan Trainor's "Made You Look" hangs in at 4th ranking 8th in sales, 7th in callout and 3rd in video streams. Sam Smith and Kim Petras "Unholy" stays at #2 with impressive numbers still across the board. Repeating at #1 and only after five weeks out, Miley Cyrus' "Flowers" is a clear hit ranking second in all categories.

A new entry into the top 10 and another big mover of the week is Beyonce's "Cuff It". The ranking has a lot to do with it being the #1 seller of the week but also top 20 in both audio and video streams. A good one for the panel to revisit. Moving up to 8th and gaining more stations is Coi LeRay's "Players". The song is already 8th in overall callout plus up to 6th in sales and 4th in video streaming plus up to 19th in airplay. Kane and Katelyn Brown's "Thank God" continues to show signs of completely crossing over from country rising to 18th on the overall chart. It's the 9th ranked seller and 16th in callout and the airplay rank increase to 22nd shows there are more believers on the panel.

Speaking of crossing over, the biggest surprise on the chart comes from country superstar Morgan Wallen with a new cut "Last Night". The song has blown up on DSP's registering at #3 in audio streams PLUS it's the 3rd highest seller of the week. One definitely to watch in the next few weeks.

Songs that are performing higher than most with all of the heaviest increases in all MMI Components.

THE CALLOUT DIAGNOSIS HOTAC

MIKE McVAY

President
McVay Media Consulting

“Unstoppable” by Sia remains the highest testing Hot AC song from this past weeks panel. The song is 96% familiar. The song has a total positive of 72.0 and burn levels in the single digits. The song tests slightly better with the upper end of the sample. Women 25-32 gave it a 70.0 Positive score and women 33-39 showed a positive score of 73.9. The biggest hit of her career at a time when many listeners are just discovering her. The tune is aptly named. Sia is unstoppable.

The controversy, off-air and discussed in some offices, about the fitness for air of “Unholy” by Sam Smith & Kim Petras has been curious to me. The questions, and profile of the song, grew following their performance on the Grammy Awards. If it’s the audience that matters, the audience has it as the 9th highest testing song of the week and showing an almost equal score between 25-32 and 33-39. This song is showing great acceptance among the listening audience. Sidenote; I could make it work wearing Sam’s red outfit.

Miley Cyrus continues to show growth with the song “Flowers.” That amazing unique voice, with the lyrics she penned, magnify the relatability of this song. Total positive is at 67%. It’s testing almost equally with the younger and older female panelists. Single digit burn. Familiarity is at 91%. This tune has the legs under it to become #1. You can expect to be playing it through the spring. It continues to grow.

David Guetta & Bebe Rexha have created a brilliant song by blending Guetta’s mixing work with Bebe’s vocals. The song is an ear worm because of the use of lyrics from Eifel 65’s Blue (Da Ba Dee) which became “I’m Good (Blue).” Every time I hear it, I find myself replaying it in my head over and over. Because it is testing Top-10 it’s playing every one hour forty-five minutes. In other words it’s always in my head. The audience scores it as the 8th best testing song this week. No negatives and no burn.

The big grower this week; The Weeknd “Die for You.” Just under 60% Total Positive. Total Like puts it at the #13 song, although the overall score puts this song at #21. Meaning it’s not ready for the Power Category yet, but it’s showing signs that it will get there. No serious negatives. Familiarity will grow as it grows.

Sources included Amazon, Apple, You Tube, Google Play, Napster, Pandora, and Slacker, combined to provide you a pinpoint look at the top streaming songs.

GREGG ALLMAN'S DINNER WITH JIMMY CARTER

At 98, President Jimmy Carter has entered hospice at his home in Plains, Ga. He never stopped contributing to his mission of love, peace and a better more understanding world. Also worth remembering is the fact that Jimmy and The Allman Bros were tight. The late blues legend Gregg Allman joined Conan O'Brien and tells the story of hanging in the Lincoln Bedroom with Mama Lillian, and invite from little Amy and the rest is history.

LATTO FT. LU KALA - "LOTTERY"

This is a sure bet. No need to roll the dice. U R A winner, winner chicken dinner. This straight flush will make you blush. You're holding a hand full of aces. You scratched off all the right numbers. You rang the bells. You are rollin' big numbers. Time to double down. Wanna cash in? Then cash out? To win the "Lottery", click here:

NIALL HORAN - "HEAVEN" LIVE

Even though his sound, look, and solo career has blossomed, Irish Singer-Songwriter and One Direction escapee Niall Horan still has that boy-band magic dust. And by the looks of the MMI Sonar spin-pings, his latest single "Heaven" seems to be headed in that one direction...up! The senior staff of MMI stayed up very very late to watch the very very Late Late Show with James Corden who whipped out a 6 string that was conveniently stored behind the couch. Click here:

070 SHAKE - "COCOON"

Trippy, edgy, and chill, New Jersey's Danielle Balbuena goes by the stage moniker 070 Shake. Shake is kinda what you'd call a "child of Kanye" who has mentored and encouraged her left-of-center poppy rap retro style. The simplicity of this clip is a big part of the charm; a bunch of hopping-hot city hustlers shaking their talents in the streets. Click here:

TAYLOR SWIFT - "LAVENDER HAZE"

Taylor can simply do whatever she wants. Left or right, up or down, black or white, hot or cold....it's her world and we dutifully follow. She's earned the golden ticket to produce art as she pleases and we're glad we're invited to her musical museum. In this smoke-filled clip, Ta-Ta simply wants to stay put surrounded by what makes her happy, and live in her "Lavender Haze". To feel the effect of the essential oils, click here:

BEBE REXHA - "HEART WANTS WHAT IT WANTS"

You gotta love a video about a video shoot! Bebe bounces back with a few crew on hand to make cinematic magic with all boom mics, wires, cameras, and other gear all starring in supporting roles. Click here:

2 AIRSCORE: THE AIRPLAY INTEL 3.0 RETENTION SCORE predicts listener tune-in/tune-out on song play by contemplating the trend over time relationship between local and national airplay, local/regional callout, and audio and video streaming.

3 NATIONAL CALLOUT contemplates more than 1,000 respondents weekly in four regions geographically equivalent over the trailing 14 days of calls.

4 STREAMING, AUDIO contemplates trailing 14 days of all streaming. Songs with insufficient data are designated with an "x". These songs do not affect the Total Performance Score in any way.

5 STREAMING, VIDEO contemplates trailing 14 days of all streaming. Songs with insufficient data are designated with an "x". These songs do not affect the Total Performance Score in any way.

6 SALES is based on 14 days trailing results. Songs with insufficient data are designated as PENDING. Pending songs do not affect Total Performance Score in any way.
