MMI WEEK AT A GLANCE

First it was Miley Cyrus about 7 weeks back. Now, there are two more who are taking off like a shot after just 3 weeks on the Mediabase Chart. Miguel's "Sure Thing" is looking more and more like just that (a sure thing!!) rising to 8th on the Powers chart from 10 last week. Top 10 in audio streams and callout and top 5 in video streams, more stations jumped on the bandwagon as the airplay rises five positions to #18. The British Tik Tok phenom, Pink Pantheress and "Boy's A Liar", is within one spot of the top 10 moving up to #11 from 15th overall last week. With callout picking up at 18th, it's a streaming and sales monster ranking 2nd in sales and audio streams and 3rd in video streams. More panel believers jumping on board with airplay now at #22 from 25th last week. The reaction has been so quick and strong to both, that the panel will need to move just as quick on them. Don't miss out on two songs the listeners are feeling now.

Morgan Wallen's "Last Night" continues to exhibit impressive crossover potential advancing 3 spots to #14 overall this week. It's the #2 seller and the top audio streamer but still has some room to move up in callout. More stations are taking the chance as the airplay rank is up to 24th from 30 last week. He's nowhere near the household name he has for country, but this young man is making it known that he could be a multi-format star. The panel should put any preconceived notions aside and just look at the numbers.

Get ready for two more "newbies" that could start making some noise from two very opposite sides of the musical spectrum. Metro Boomin' may have another possible hit with "Superhero (Heroes and Villains)" featuring Chris Brown and Future. It's already a top 10 streamer ranking 8th in video and 9th in audio. The panel is still all over "Creepin" as this one is low at #48 in airplay. Alternative rocker and Philly native, Lizzy McAlpine, is making some noise on the pop side after going top 10 on the rock chart. Her haunting tune "Ceilings" is 9th in video streams and 16th on the audio side but, more importantly, she starts ranked at 42nd in airplay. Pretty high for a song like this. Some of the panel is on board early.

The top 5 just won't budge. Rema and Selena Gomez' "Calm Down" stays at #5 overall. It's a big seller ranked 3rd and the video hits the 6th spot in streaming. "Unholy" from Sam Smith and Kim Petras holds at 4th on the strength of top 5 in callout and top 10 in sales. The Weekend's "Die For You" drops one spot to 3rd but still is a streaming giant ranking 3rd in audio streams and 4th in callout. A definite listener preference even after 29 weeks! SZA's "Kill Bill" checks in at #2 from 3rd last week. It's a top 5 streamer and 7th in callout giving the panel a clearcut reason to put or keep that in heavy. Once again at #1 is "Flowers" from Miley Cyrus. This is a total smash ranking #1 in sales, 2nd in video streams and callout and 5th in audio streams. With only 9 weeks on the chart, this has a lot more growth left in it.

Songs that are performing higher than most with all of the heaviest increases in all MMI Components.

THE CALLOUT DIAGNOSIS HOTAC

MIKE McVAY

President
McVay Media Consulting

We have a new leading song for the week. The big five are ... Metro Boomin' "Creepin'" becomes the highest testing song. Miley and "Flowers" is number two. In the three position is The Kid Laroï with Justin Bieber "Stay" and at number four is Sia with "Unstoppable." Then we hit a clump of re-currents at number five leading off with Ed Sheeran "Bad Habits." Glass Animals is at number six with "Heat Waves." Sheeran has two titles in the Top-10 as "Shivers" comes in as the seventh best testing song for the week.

There are several songs that continue to test well with both sides of the demo. Ms. Cyrus' song "Flowers" continues to show growth. The song is #1 in the Midwest and the South. This song was predicted by this research process to be highly accepted. Joining it as songs showing real potential are Meghan Trainor "Made You Look", Coi Leray "Players" looks like it's for real as it posts a promising store on the upper end of the female sample. Also looking like it will grow quickly is the song by Sam Smith "I'm Not Here to Make Friends."

Given that all things are cyclical, watch for a shake-up in a couple weeks as we're starting to see double digit burn on songs by Sia, Glass Animals, Sam Smith f/Kim Petras, Dua Lipa, David Guetta & Bebe Rexha, Nicky Youre, Lizzo, Stephen Sanchez and Beyonce. None of these tunes are crispy. The growing burn does suggest that those on the top of the chart, that have been testing for a significant period of time, can be shifted to recurrent.

The most impressive song this week, based on the research we're seeing, is the aforementioned song by Coi Leray. Bloody Mary by Lady Gaga is showing positive acceptance with the Top-40 research panel. Given that songs cross from Top-40 to Hot AC as a part of their lifecycle, it is reasonable to expect that this song will; show eventual growth with this panel. The song is already showing a good "Total Like" score for a song that's only been on the active chart a short time. Because of its' history, it is a familiar song.

Want to freshen-up your playlist? "Blind for Love" by the American Authors, Jason Mraz "I Feel Like Dancing", Mimi Webb "Red Flags" and For King and Country "Love Me Like I Am" are new entries or recent entries into the test sample. These titles have upside potential, but need more familiarity. These four tunes are worthy of exposure at night, overnights, and weekends to build familiarity that they can be evaluated with more of a foundation under them.

Sources included Amazon, Apple, You Tube, Google Play, Napster, Pandora, and Slacker, combined to provide you a pinpoint look at the top streaming songs.

THE WONDERS (ONEDERS) THAT THING YOU DO

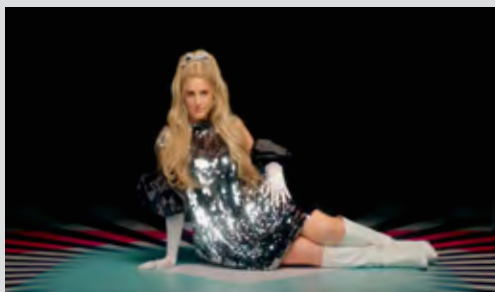

What an honor! Rolling Stone magazine just awarded this track as the "Number One Song EVER by a Fake Band". Wow. And deservedly so. From the amazing film by the same name and directorial debut by Tom Hanks, The fictitious band is The Oneders who become (later in the film) The Wonders. The movie itself is a joyous study of the nuts and bolts of our beloved biz and this infectious yet fake power pop platter that matters was written by the late genius Adam Schlesinger, creator, writer producer of Fountains Of Wayne. MEGHAN TRAINOR - "MOTHER"

This is an absolutely brilliant song and video from Meghan Trainor. No really. She delivers simply a magnificent slice of art that features an in-your-face (sez a) cameo from Kris Jenner and a troupe of ridiculously fun dancers. Meghan is endlessly talented and deserves her own Broadway play. Also, if you have grey temples, you'll recognize a musical tip of the hat to the mega covered "Mr. Sandman". Click here:

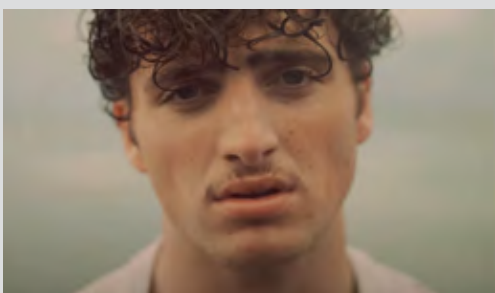

MILEY CYRUS - "RIVER"

Ya know, it's simply Miley's 'River' and we're all just swimming in it. Pop has always been dominated by 'what's now' and it's been Miley's moment for quite a while. She's everything we want and need; sexy, talented, scorching hot, and masterful at marketing the entire universe that swirls around her. What fun and how lucky are we to live on Planet Miley. Who cares that all the oxygen is taken up and we can't breathe when she dances....we'll all go out in a happy state of asphyxiation. Click here:

KID CULTURE - "KEEP IT"

This kid made his mark as a producer of many chart toppers from Bieber to Eminem and has now taken a swing at being a solo singles artist. Little wonder this track is an official tackle box filled with shiny hooks and the video is a visual feast of fun, fashion, and fantastic imagery. The message within is simple: you got negativity? Then "Keep it". Click here:

BENSON BOONE - "SUGAR SWEET"

GRACIE ABRAMS - "I KNOW IT WON'T WORK"

Young LA girl Gracie has released her official video of this haunting ode to pessimism. The stark and grainy video is a perfect vehicle to a song that has lyrical twists and turns like a ghost story. It features a horse, a beach, and a stellar song performed by a budding singer-songwriting superstar. Click here:

CHARTS/POWERS:

1 AIRPLAY is calculated by Trailing 14 Days of radio airplay on the Key Influencer radio stations – Top 157 radio stations by Average Quarter Hour. Charts are weighted using currently assigned points in Mediabase...100% point value for Morning Drive, 90% for Afternoon Drive, 80% for Mid-days, 70% for nights, 50% for Overnights.

2 AIRSCORE: THE AIRPLAY INTEL 3.0 RETENTION SCORE predicts listener tune-in/tune-out on song play by contemplating the trend over time relationship between local and national airplay, local/regional callout, and audio and video streaming.

3 NATIONAL CALLOUT contemplates more than 1,000 respondents weekly in four regions geographically equivalent over the trailing 14 days of calls.

4 STREAMING, AUDIO contemplates trailing 14 days of all streaming. Songs with insufficient data are designated with an "x". These songs do not affect the Total Performance Score in any way.

5 STREAMING, VIDEO contemplates trailing 14 days of all streaming. Songs with insufficient data are designated with an "x". These songs do not affect the Total Performance Score in any way.

6 SALES is based on 14 days trailing results. Songs with insufficient data are designated as PENDING. Pending songs do not affect Total Performance Score in any way.

HOT ZONE / DEVELOPING

All five components listed above are contemplated. Songs moving up and increasing significantly in TWO or more categories are designated in the Hot Zone. Other new releases are designated as Developing.

RECURRENTS

Recurrents are a simple calculation of songs that have trended downward and no longer qualify for Current status. Trailing 14 days are contemplated, along with 6 weeks of Retention Data, and are computed on a 50/50 level of importance.

ACTION

Songs that are testing either in Callout or in Retention significantly higher than current Airplay rank. These songs are considered UNDEREXPOSED and deserving generally of greater airplay.

STREAMING AUDIO, VIDEO AND SALES

Streaming Audio and Video, and Sales, are based on trailing 14 days data. All major streaming services are used wherever possible, along with sales.

NOTE: Hot AC Callout information is provided as stand-alone information. This data does not factor into the main chart rankings in any way.
